

When we write a scientific or technical document, we get a brief glimpse of the look of maths, we write a function $f(x)$ as a sum with weights w_i :